GREEN GINGER at RAMSAY'S. The Presidential Fraud.

Major Burke, continuing his evidence before the Potter Committee in New York, yesterday,

"By mu ua! agreement," friends of Mr. Hart were to visit Gen. Grant with a view to ascertaining what his views were on the ques tion of the establishment of the Nicholis government, but there was nothing said, as far as I am aware, about any commission. I was as sured by Hayes and others that all the troops would be withdrawe.

Witness read from some papers which he had in his pessession a statement that there was a letter from Mr. Hayes to Mr. Foster, under date of February 23, containing the basis of guarantics and assurance. Verbal guaranties were given to Sherman, Matthews, Foster, Dennison and Garfield, both at the interview which was held in the committee room of the time fer such enterprises, but the Sun merits Senate and at Wermley's Hotel. This letter democratic party shook him. I gave the copy whom I met on the stairs leading to the finance committee room.

Gen. Butler then handed witness a book, and asked him if the statement contained therein was one made by Mr. Lavy on the floor of the House. He replied that it was.

Q -Was it known by the democratic side of the House that the agreement had been made to stop fillibustering? A .- It was substantially stated to them that the sooner the count was permitted to proceed in Louisiana the sooner troops could be withdrawn and the necessary arrangements completed for the 4th of March. I of sulphur on an extensive scale—the only esbelieve the count would have been completed tablishment of the sort, it is said, in the United even if this arrangement had not been made, because members of Congress who favored the fillibustering side did so on representations from Louisiana that thereby we could get guaranties which would save our State government. Many of them showed letters and telegrams from their constitutents condemning dilatory action, and that delay in counting the votes bawe all agreed. I then telegraphed Richells that dispite all our previous arrangements the count would have to go on.

Q .- What or who was the high sutherity that satisfied you that unless you were very much decoved your plans would be successful? A.—Stanley Matthews was one. The colored people did not regard Nicholis as objectionable. J. T. Wilmer, Bishop of Louisiana, went to Washington to describe the streeten to the standard and ington to describe the situation to Hayes and Grant, and that any attempt to install Packard would result in anarchy and bloodshed.

Q-What was the maning of Wilmer saying "Presse don't be disturbed in Louisiana?" A.-I understood by that that Hayes would not attempt to place the Packard government over to the at suic Louisiana. I have no doubt that the Governor, as well as myself, distinctly understood the meaning of "not to be disturbed."

Q-Who made the statement to you that on If income giving up two Senators to the republicans you could have Louisiane? A .- Information that such was the disposition to be made of the Nicholls government was imparted to me by Nichells government on February 26 and 27, and afterwards endorsed by Sherman and Matthews on the part of Hayer.

The Potter Committee.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.-The Potter Congressional Committee resumed its session to-

Major Burke took the stand and was examined by Mr. Potter. He said in the election of 1876, the affairs of the State were in the and are the last resort of physicians and people hands of the republican party. There was what purported to be a consus made in 1875 by the State government, under the auspices of the republican party. He could not recolleet the exact figures of that cersas, but it was lect the exact figures of that cers 13, but it was utterly iscorrect, and the Legislature refused to base its apportionment on the ceasus. It swelled the colored vote to 25,000 colored and is an infalible and rapid cure for every form votes. It was a fraud. Here he submitted a of Fever and Ague. Its effects are permanent and certain and requirements are permanent. lot of statistics showing the parishes in which the fraudulent census existed. Throughout the whole parish of New Orleans the total fraudulent number added to census numbered 25,300 persons. There were, for instance, 15 polling places in the 31 Ward, and if certificates of registration were issued, one man could voto in the whole 15 places, there being nothing to prevent a man voting in whichever polling place he pleased. Registrars were all republicans. We offered to prove frauds and to be accorded equal representation on the board of registration, but we were laughed at.

The consus of the parish of Orleans for 1875 showed a colored population of 57,547, and on that basis there ought to have been a colored vote of 11,529; but in 1876 the registration of colored votes amounted to 24,300. We objected to this but were again laughed at. The supervisor of registration was a republican and fixed matters as he pleased. There were several thousand white votes thrown out, but colored ones were allowed to stand. There are fifty seven parishes and eight hundred polling places in Louisiana. Witness recollected that there was one but instance in which affidavits in regard to riots and turmeil came up in proper shape as required by law and this was a protest by a republican from the parish of Concordia. The returning board took no no tice of it and counted the whole vote of the parish for the republicans. The charge was that a prominent republican candidate was found with his hand in one of the ballet bex as and then some trouble followed. Here witness gave a long ascertaining of full returns. The returns that witness got in several days before the republicans ascertained their full vote, indicated a majority for Nieholls over Packard of nearly 9,000, and for the Tilden electors over the Hayes electors a majority of some 7,000 to 8,000.
